Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

For Colds, Coughs, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Influenza, and Incipient Consumption, no remedy approaches Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has long been the most popular and successful anodyne expectorant in Pharmacy, and is everywhere approved and recommended by the Faculty. It soothes the inflamed membrane, breaks up irritating mucus, allays coughing, and induces repose. As a family emergency medicine, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral takes the lead. For the relief and cure of croup, whooping-cough, sore throat, and all the pulmonary troubles to which the young are so liable, it is invaluable. No household is quite secure without

MOLOKAI RANCH IS SOLD

Some Lively Bidding at the Judiciary Building.

Finally Knocked Down to A. D. McClellan for Two Hundred and Fifty-one Thousand and Dollars.

There was a very large attendance at the sale of the Molokai ranch property at the Judiciary building at noon today and capitalists were as plentiful as flies in one of the tramcars. Acting President Cooper was there as were the other three members of the Cabinet and the Chief Justice and his two associates on the bench. In the crowd were noticed B F Dillingham, Chas S Desky, W F Allen, J A McCandless, H W Schmidt, J S Walker, J A Hasinger, J I Dowsett, Geo R Carter, Judge A W Carter, J Marsden, Cecil Brown, H M von Holt, Judge Stanley, C A Brown, Theo H Davies, A Hocking, Mark Robinson, Robert Lewers, Col McLeod and many others prominent in business and government circles.

Promptly at noon Auctioneer Morgan read off the terms and conditions of the sale and description of the property included in the ranch. He was followed by Commissioner Henry Smith who gave notice on behalf of the trustees of several small parcels of land which were excluded from the sale, having previously been deeded to the late R. W. Meyer. Mr. Smith also stated that the trustees reserved two acres at Kaunakakai for fifty years to be used as a public landing place and, lastly, that the trustees sold only such rights as were vested in them and would give no covenants in the deed.

The auctioneer then announced that he was ready for bids, following it up with the announcement that $150,000, the upset price, had been bid.

Judge Carter asked whom by and the auctioneer held that he was not obliged to give the name of the bidder.

Judge Carter insisted that he was and offered the upset price himself.

The auctioneer entertained the bid but immediately afterwards said $151,000 had been offered.

Judge Carter again insisted on his right to hear the bid made and to know who was bidding against him.

Mr. Morgan again ruled against him and refused to disclose the name of the bidder.

W. A. Kinney, counsel for the Bishop Estate, who was present was appealed to but refused to interfere, saying that any rights would be preserved by entering a protest, which was done.

The bidding then went between Judge Carter and his unknown opponent by raises of $1000 at a time until $210,000 had been offered. By that time the unknown bidder had been discovered by most of those present to be C. S. Desky, who raised his next bid to $215,000. Judge Carter dropped out of the bidding at this point and a stranger took it up, raising Mr. Desky another $1000. Desky quickly raised $5000 and the stranger another $1000 and thus it went on until Mr. Desky made his last bid of a quarter of a million dollars. The stranger promptly ly raised the bid to $251,000, and Mr. Desky said his limit had been reached. The property was then knocked down to the stranger, who gave his name as A. D. McClellan.

Mr. Desky refused to state for whom he was bidding, other than that it was for Bruce Waring & Co., but it is generally understood that he represented a syndicate of local capitalists.

Mr. McClellan, who bought the property, is a wealthy capitalist of Boston, who arrived here just two days ago. He was here about a year ago and looked over the property. He is said to be the gentleman in whose interest Judges Hartwell and Carter have been acting of late.

MATCH RACE OFF.

Correspondence Relative to Agreement Between Martin and Sylva.

Under date of January 25, an agreement was signed by George Martin and John F Sylva for a match bicycle race, best two in three mile heats, at Cyclomere park on Tuesday evening, February 1. It was for a purse of $100, the winner to receive $75, the loser $25.

A forfeit of $10 a side was put up according to the agreement. Later the race was postponed until this evening.

Yesterday C. L. Clement, manager of Cyclomere, addressed a note to Sylva, asking if it were true that he did not intend to line up for the match. Sylva replied on the same date saying that, as the manager had been verbally advised, he was in no fit condition, nor would be for some time to come, on account of his accident on Saturday night, and concluding thus:

"If it is for the forfeit money you ask for my written decision, I would advise you to turn it over to Mr. Martin if he demands it. But I hope he will be sport enough to give me another chance for my money when I am in condition to ride again."

Admiral McNaughton, on reaching San Francisco in the Coptic, declined to talk of the Eastern situation, but said that, with vessels on the way, the United States would have seven warships, the best of their class in the world, on the Asiatic station to protect American interests. He said the Pacific Coast should have twelve more battleships and if the Atlantic had twelve additional battleships it would still be below the limit.

CAPTAIN L. T. KENAKE.

Elected Without Opposition to Command Company B.

Adjutant L. T. Kenake was chosen Captain of Company B, N. G. H., last night by unanimous vote. There was no opposition. In fact every member of the company and the Regiment at large are more than satisfied with the result. After the election Captain Kenake addressed the Company. He said he would work hard to build up B, and hoped the boys would co-operate with him to that end. His remarks were loudly applauded.

At 8 o'clock the Company, by invitation of Captain Kenake, adjourned to the Officers' club rooms in the bugatow. There the new commander had arranged a spread and a musical program. The fun lasted a couple of hours.

Captain Kenake's commission will be made out at once. It will probably be ready for delivery this week. The new commander is considered one of the best military men in the country, a good organizer and an officer of exceptional executive ability. He has been a resident of Hawaii nearly 17 years, ten or more of which he has been connected with the military. When John Good shot the policeman in January, 1893, Kenake closed the front door of Henry Davis' store on Fort street and reported immediately for duty. He could have been captain of Company B in '93 and again in '94, but did not care to oppose friends.
